

Creativeness in Ergonomics (CE) Student Award

Sponsored by CNA Insurance Company, this award recognizes achievements in ergonomics application or research, including process improvement, education, applied instrumentation and product development as submitted for presentation in an oral or poster presentation at the Applied Ergonomics Conference.

- Awarded for a specific achievement or for a series of achievements submitted for presentation in an oral or poster presentation at the Applied Ergonomics Conference.
- $1,000 awarded to four students, for a total of $4,000.
- The award winners will receive complimentary conference registration and an awards luncheon ticket.
- The award will be presented at the conference awards luncheon on Thursday, March 19, 2020.

All students who submit an abstract for an oral presentation session (deadline August 16, 2019) or a poster session (deadline November 29, 2019) and are accepted to present at the 2020 Applied Ergonomics Conference will be considered for this award. The top finalists will be notified and may be asked to answer a short essay question. Example questions include:

1. Why have you chosen to go into the field of Ergonomics?
2. What excites you about the field of Ergonomics?
3. Where do you see the field of Ergonomics headed?

Questions? Call – 770.349.1126