

Institute of Industrial and Systems Engineers

Application for Scholarships/Fellowships

Instructions:

- Complete and return form by February 1 for all scholarships (except SHS which must be returned by Nov. 20). Send complete application packet to scholarshipapps@iise.org
- Please check website carefully to ensure you meet all criteria <https://www.iise.org/Details.aspx?id=857>
- Only one application form must be filled out if nominated for more than one scholarship.
- An academic transcript is required in order to complete your application. This may be unofficial or official.
- 3 References are required (see details at end of the form).

IISE Scholarships:

- A.O. Putnam Memorial Scholarship: Emphasis on management consulting
- C.B. Gambrell Undergraduate Scholarship
- Dwight D. Gardner Scholarship
- Harold and Inge Marcus Scholarship: Emphasis on academic excellence and contribution to development of the ISE profession
- Henry and Elisabeth Kroeze Memorial Scholarship: Emphasis on metric, engineering, and computer science
- IISE Council of Fellows Undergraduate Scholarship: Emphasis on outstanding academics and leadership
- Marvin Mundel Memorial Scholarship: Emphasis on work measurement and methods engineering
- Vinod and Gail Sahney Scholarship: Emphasis on academic excellence, community service, IISE Chapter involvement
- Lisa Zaken Award for Excellence: Emphasis on scholarly activities and campus leadership in ISE profession-related activities
- IISE Fellows William Biles, Hamid Parsaei, and Victor Zaloom Endowed Scholarship: Emphasis on academic excellence and IISE student chapter leadership
- Presidents Scholarship: Emphasis on scholarly activities and campus leadership in ISE profession-related activities
- UPS Scholarship for Female Students
- UPS Scholarship for Minority Students
- John L. Imhoff Scholarship: Emphasis on international understanding of the ISE profession (must submit 1 page essay)
- E.J. Sierleja Memorial Fellowship: Emphasis on study in transportation, priority given for a focus in rail transportation
- Gilbreth Memorial Fellowship
- John S.W. Fargher Jr. Scholarship: Emphasis on academic excellence and noteworthy contributions to the development of the ISE profession.
- SHS: Emphasis on healthcare. Application deadline November 20.

Institute of Industrial and Systems Engineers

Application for Scholarships/Fellowships

Personal Data (Please type)

Name	Telephone #	Email
Permanent Home Address	City	State/Province Zip
Birthplace	Citizenship	Gender Race

Education

College or University Currently Attending	Major	Current cumulative GPA
<input type="checkbox"/> Undergraduate <input type="checkbox"/> Graduate/Doctoral program	Expected graduation date
If undergraduate or Graduate, have you been accepted into an ISE Master's-level or Ph.D. program in? <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No	If yes, where and what is your expected graduation date?
(For graduate/doctoral students only) Previous cumulative GPA in Undergraduate
High School attended	Location	H.S. Graduation date

Work Experience

Employer & Job Title	Period of Employment
Duties
Employer & Job Title	Period of Employment
Duties
Employer & Job Title	Period of Employment
Duties

Activities and Leadership

IISE member? Yes No

IISE Membership #

(Please note that applicants must be members of IISE to be eligible for all scholarships, with the exception of the John L. Imhoff Scholarship)

List the top professional associations or honorary societies to which you belong, noting leadership positions that you have held and briefly describe your activities in the organization (limited to 1,800 characters)

List any other college activities or community volunteer work that you have performed, noting leadership positions that you have held and briefly describe your activities in the organization. (limited to 1,800 characters)

Activities and Leadership (continued)

Professional goals – Applicants are judged on scholastic ability, character, leadership, in particular emphasize leadership within IISE, and potential service to the industrial engineering profession. Explain why you are interested in industrial and systems engineering and how you might provide future leadership to the profession. (limited to 3,600 characters)

References:

Each scholarship requires 3 letters of recommendation, no longer than one page each. You may include the letters with your application, or your references may send it directly to: scholarshipapps@iise.org and list the subjecting heading as "Reference Letter, Student Name"

Reference letters should highlight the student's character and potential to contribute to the ISE profession, as well as any specialized criteria mentioned in specific scholarships.

List your References:

Name	Organization	Position/Title	Email
Name	Organization	Position/Title	Email
Name	Organization	Position/Title	Email

Additional Materials:

If applying for John L. Imhoff Scholarship – 1 page essay detailing your noteworthy contributions to the development of the IE Profession through international understanding, either by academic, employment, or professional achievements.

An academic transcript is required in order to complete your application. This may be unofficial or official.

Please send complete application packet to scholarshipapps@iise.org

This form must be returned by February 1, EXCEPT if applying for the SHS scholarship, which must be returned by November 20.