

Rudy Santacroce, PE, CSSBB, PMP, DSHS

Recognized for earning his certification as an ASQ Six Sigma Black Belt

BIOGRAPHY INFORMATION:

Rudy Santacroce is the System Director of Management Engineering and Process Improvement for CHRISTUS Health, an international health system serving the southern United States, Chile, and Mexico. Rudy's experience spans over two decades as an Industrial and Management Engineer with extensive experience in both academic and community healthcare environments. Rudy's work specializes in Lean/Six Sigma process improvement methodologies, operational planning, financial and cost benefit analysis, and advanced engineering analytics and systems modeling. Rudy has authored numerous publications and presented his work at the national and international level and has taught both graduate and undergraduate courses in Industrial and Systems Engineering and Healthcare Administration. Rudy resides in Dallas, Texas.